1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Appendix A of BA 63/94 gives Special Requirements: England, stating the BE Division of the Highways Agency is responsible for the promulgation of policy for the inspection and maintenance of the Department of Transport's Highway Structures.

1.2 Since the issue of BA 63/94, the Institution of Structural Engineers has published a Report on the Operation and Maintenance of Bridge Access Gantries and Runways. Amendments to BA 63/94, Appendix A and Chapter 4 are to be made to refer to this Report so that it may be used as a Guide in operating and maintaining bridge access gantries and runways for Highways Agency Structures.

2. AMENDMENTS TO BA 63/94, APPENDIX A AND CHAPTER 4

2.1 The following amendments should be incorporated into BA 63/94, Appendix A

A1. Introduction Add the following new paragraph:

The Institution of Structural Engineers has published an Institution Guide: The Operation and Maintenance of Bridge Access Gantries and Runways. This should be used as a Guide in operating and maintaining bridge access gantries and runways for Highways Agency Structures.

2.2 The following amendment should be incorporated into BA 63/94, Chapter 4, References.

Reference 12 Add the following new reference:

12. The Institution of Structural Engineers Report: The Operation and Maintenance of Bridge Access Gantries and Runways.
